Madera Planned Parenthood Vandalized

In case you missed our official press release, a Planned Parenthood clinic in Madera was vandalized last week. RLCC denounces this cowardly act of vandalism that disregards the rule of law and will only make our job of ending abortion more difficult. See below for our complete and comprehensive coverage.

Life Report #101: Josh's Most Common Mistake in Abortion Dialogues

One of the most important aspects of this show is analyzing how to have effective dialogues with people about abortion. In today's show, the Life Report team examines the mistake Josh makes most often when talking about abortion. Ironically, Liz makes the opposite mistake. Both are examined and tips are offered for those struggling with the same mistakes as Josh and Liz. But you have to watch the show to find out what those mistakes are...

donations, we're also looking for committed friends of life to join the "300 Club," Right to Life's monthly support team. For just $25 each month, you can be an integral part of RLCC's life-changing and life-saving work here in the San Joaquin Valley and across the U.S. Click here for more!

Is it Okay to Let Daddy Die?

By Scott Klusendorf

Here's a variation on a question I've been asked more than once, and one we'll cover in the graduate course I'm co-teaching next month at Biola:

My father is nearing the final stages of terminal cancer. He's refusing further aggressive treatment and is content to die. His physician tells us that food and water may soon be an unnecessary burden and will only enhance his discomfort. At the same time, the doctor said that without increased doses of morphine (pain control), dad will suffer greatly as death approaches. Two questions: 1) Is it ever morally permissible to remove food and water? 2) Isn't increasing his morphine levels tantamount to hastening his death, perhaps a gentle form of euthanasia?

Me:

In both cases, it comes down to intent.
