Should Pro-Lifers Encourage Censorship of Pro-Choicers?

Description: Trent Horn sits in for Kyle, joining Josh and Liz in a discussion about whether pro-lifers should encourage censorship of pro-choice activities.

Afterwards, we respond to this email from a fan: "If we're talking with someone who doubts that humans are inherently valuable, couldn't we just quote the "Declaration of Independence" to them, and other political documents that affirm human value?"

Our Response to the Howard Stern Show

by Josh Brahm

Last week, Howard Stern, or more likely one of the people administrating his youtube channel, commented on the Life Report

YouTube Channel:

"Good luck trying to bannnn abortions, Prohibition never works. We have tried it with alcohol major failure we have tried it with Drugs that is really a big time failure as I said prohibition always fails."

This is my response:

Slavery still goes on around the world, but that doesn't mean William Wilberforce was wasting his time trying to abolish it. Every year a bigger majority of the country agrees that it's wrong to kill a baby. The people that attempted to ban alcohol never had that. The two issues are just not comparable.

Rachel's Vineyard Retreats for Healing after Abortion

Right to Life of Central California has a new ministry called Rachel's Vineyard. Rachel's Vineyard Weekends are a beautiful opportunity for any person who has struggled with the emotional or spiritual pain of a past abortion.

The retreat is a very specific process designed to help those wounded by abortion to experience the mercy and compassion of God and transform the pain of the past into hope and love.

Thousands of women and men throughout the world have attended these retreats and have experienced the healing power of Christ.

Two more local retreats are scheduled this year. The retreat for Spanish speakers is June 3, 4, and 5. The retreat for English speakers is September 30-October 2.

Please call 1-888-686-8537 for information in Spanish or 1-877-629-6626 for information in English.
