40 Days for Life - Praying to End Violence

Click here to stay up to date!

In just over 70 days, Fresno and the Central Valley will enter into a prayer vigil to end the violence of abortion.

Communities across our nation are oppressed by a culture of violence and devaluing of human life that incites a mother to harm her own children.

To overcome the tide of violence and bloodshed Fresno Christians are asked to join together in prayer and repentance for 40 days.

To help end the violence in our city and BECOME A CULTURE OF PEACE, JOIN the 2010 40 Days for Life Campaign! Click here to receive updates for this Fall's prayer vigil.

Mental Floss

by Josh Brahm

I recently sent two letters to the Fresno Bee editor. One of them was published in the paper, and both of them were published by our good friends at the Live Action blog. Read them here:

Responding to... "Pro-lifers: are you willing to adopt all the babies?"

In response to Jackie DeFreitas 5/20 letter challenging pro-lifers to adopt unwanted babies, she misses the point. Let's assume, for the sake of argument, that pro-lifers are not already adopting unwanted children. How would this in any way justify the act of dismembering a defenseless child? Read the rest of the article here.

Abortion Will Reduce Tax Dollars? My Response In response to Jack Keefer's 4/27 letter making the argument that abortions will save taxpayer dollars from going to welfare, there's a major logical flaw here. Read the rest of the article here.

We've just finished a massive project: upgrading our podcast studio. We've been recording audio podcasts out of our office for a year now, but we wanted to expand to YouTube and Catholic television stations, so an upgrade was in order. After months of research and work, we now have a TV studio that is broadcast quality. Click here to check out more behind-the-scenes pictures of our new studio. This will help us continue to expand one of our primary educational ministries - something that no one else in the world is doing!
