

“A person’s a person no matter how small.”

Dear Horton,

My name is _____ and I am _____ years old.

I think all life is important because _____

_____.

Even if you are big or small, you are still _____.

I am pro-life because _____

_____.

I want to thank my mom for giving me life, and I want to tell her that she is _____

_____.

I am thankful for life because I want to be _____.

I am thankful for life because I can _____

_____.

You

"A person's a person no matter how small." *

A person's a person when smaller than small.

A baby's a person. When preborn it's true,
From one cell to billions, that babe became you!

*Line from Horton Hears a Who by Dr. Seuss